

Dear all,

This Sunday is Remembrance Sunday which is an opportunity to reflect on the nature and horror of war, and the lives lost in the cause of seeking justice. Please do take the opportunity to join us at our service this, at 10am, as this will include an act of remembrance. As a consequence, our service may be a little longer than usual.

We are very much aware that there are those that are not able to receive these online updates, and other forms of electronic communication, and we are looking at how best to keep such people informed. This may require volunteers to deliver items on a regular basis. If you feel able to help in this way, please let me know.

CHRISTMAS – a subject that is on everyone’s mind. I’m not sure how many ‘sleeps’ there are to go but we will begin the ‘Advent’ countdown with the first Sunday of Advent on the 28th November, when the first candle on the Advent Wreath will be lit in church. During advent there will be an earlier communion service provided on days where the mid-morning service is lay led. I hope to let you have details of Christmas services very soon.

Blessings,

Rev Chris
